Membership

Membership dues are paid yearly and are for January to December. This coincides with the MSAA dues which are included in the price of membership. Membership in the Saratoga Archery Club entitles the member use of the indoor and outdoor ranges, practice bales and clubhouse in accordance with the regulations set up by the majority.

As part of your membership we also ask that you contribute some time for volunteer work on the range and other activities of the club. Members are the owners and operators of the club.

Annual membership is $90 for a single individual and $100 for a whole family. This includes the membership to the MSAA and the ARROW magazine (the MSAA publication). Non-family youth membership (17 & under) is free of charge.

Summer membership for use of the outdoor archery ranges only is $40 and is good from the spring through the fall (does NOT include a key card to the clubhouse).
